

BENOPLAST[®]

Beno Plastik Ambalaj ve Kalıp San. Tic. LTD. Şti.

As one of the leader in plastic sector, Benoplast produces injection moulded packaging items for material handling, storage and distribution purposes in its two factories, one recycling plant and eight regional sales offices with warehouses around Turkey. Supplied sectors are; food&beverage, agriculture, automotive, pharmaceutical, chemical, electric& electronics, logistics and textile. In total, the exports include more than 25 countries around the World. Export products are: Plastic Pallets; open& close deck, nestable, stackable and rackable. Plastic Boxes; VDA-KLT boxes, foldable and standard industrial euro boxes, water bottle racking systems, plastic containers. Benoplast aims to have “the highest quality in production and service” in order to supply the demands of its domestic and international customers and to compete by creating differences that go beyond the price issues. In addition to being identified as an environmentally friendly company with the award given by the Turkish standards institution, the Company maintains its leadership position through its outstanding service approach and its facilities that are equipped with the latest technology.