

..... USELESS MACHINE

A PRESENT FOR SOMEONE WHO ALREADY HAS EVERYTHING?

Often you rack your brain but still do not come up with a cool present.

AREXX offers a funny gift idea, which will certainly create the "Aha!" effect. It includes a construction kit for a machine, which, exactly because it is absolutely useless, will bring big time fun. This already starts assembling it.

Technology enthusiasts will experience great joy during the assembly of the machine, the simple Technology ensures fast success not in the least by applying a logo or catchy promotional phrases at little additional charge.

After assembly fun of course does not end. If the Useless Machine is built, the owner can proudly show it to friends and family and flabbergast them with its obvious uselessness.

The multiplier effect is guaranteed!
